

Floral Arrangements & Corsages Division

Non-Professionals (Classes 27-30)

Western School of Flower Arrangers

Rules for Flower Arrangers

1. Arrangements should use the Art Principles of the Western School of Flower Arrangers:
 - subordination
 - opposition
 - transition
 - repetition
 - radiation
 - symmetry
2. Only cut, living plant material may be used. Plant material need not be grown by the exhibitor.
3. Figurines or accessories are permitted at the exhibitor's risk.
4. Finishing materials, such as crushed glass, pebbles, sand, etc., may be used. Bases of glass or wood, not to exceed 20 inches, are desirable and generally necessary as part of an arrangement, but must not dominate the composition.
5. Dish gardens are not accepted as arrangements.

Judging Points:

Design—uses of art principles	40
Distinction and originality	30
Condition of materials	30

Definitions:

ADVANCED AMATEUR: for arrangers who have won five blue ribbons at the Santa Barbara International Orchid Show.

AMATEUR—NOVICE: for arrangers who have not won five blue ribbons at the Santa Barbara International Orchid Show.

Class 27 Flower Arrangement, Advanced Amateurs (sections 169-171) eligible for Catherine Adams Trophy

- Section 169 Orchid Apparition—Orchids arranged in a simple container on a black base.
- Section 170 '67: The Summer of Peace & Love—Orchid arrangement featuring white.
- Section 171 Designer's Choice—Dominant orchid arranged using the Art Principles.

Class 28 Flower Arrangement, Amateur—Novices (sections 172-174) eligible for Sophia Hodges Trophy

- Section 172 Orchid Apparition—Orchids arranged in a simple container on a black base.
- Section 173 '67: The Summer of Peace & Love—Orchid arrangement featuring white.
- Section 174 Designer's Choice—Dominant orchid arranged using the Art Principles.

Class 29 Corsages, Advanced Amateurs (sections 175-177) eligible for Elsie Closson Trophy

- Section 175 Flower Power—Colorful orchid corsage for day wear.
- Section 176 All You Need Is Love—Orchid corsage for romantic evening.
- Section 177 Peace—A white orchid corsage.

Class 30 Corsages, Amateur—Novices (sections 178-180) eligible for Nancye Roe Trophy

- Section 178 Flower Power—Colorful orchid corsage for day wear.
- Section 179 All You Need Is Love—Orchid corsage for romantic evening.
- Section 180 Peace—A white orchid corsage.